Episode 1

???: H-hello? knocks on lense How do you turn this thing on? Ah, there we go.

The camera makes a few small gadgety noises before slowly coming into focus

You see a dark room, with the only light coming from a small lanturn at the paws of a cat

Blossomfall: This is Blossomfall, day one. The first experiment is about to commence-

Briarlight: turns on the lights

Blossomfall: gAH! Do you mind?

Briarlight: Not at all, thank you

Blossomfall: ffffff-

Briarlight: What are you doing? I haven't seen you in moons. It's like you've become one of those weird conspiracy theorists about Bumblestar being alive even though he quite obviously was killed in front of us.

Millie: BRIARBABYYYY

Blossomfall: Speak of the Devil...

Millie: BRIARBABY THERE YOU ARE- WHAT ARE YOU DOING WITH THAT CRAZY LADY GET OVER HERE AND LET MAMA PROTECT YOU FROM THE SCARY CAT

Millie continues to drag Briarlight out of the room by her disabled legs

Briarlight: clawing at the floor trying to stay but failing noooooo voice fades off into the distance

Blossomfall: Well, that happened.

Blossomfall: Clears throat Anyways it's time to begin...

Blossomfall: THORNCLAW!!!

Thornclaw: ...yeah?

Blossomfall: Come here peasant

Thornclaw: ...okay

Blossomfall shuffles to the back of the room and comes back dragged a box behind her

Blossomfall: Open it

Thornclaw: Why-

Blossomfall: OPEN IT!!!

Thornclaw: OKAY GEEZ

Thornclaw reaches towards the box and opens it

Thornclaw: shrieks THERE'S A BODY

Blossomfall looks in to see the decapitated body of Bumblestar

Blossomfall: nods All in check

Thornclaw: ...w-what? What do you mean? How is this okay?

Blossomfall: shrugs You obviously haven't met CloudtailGrandmas before

Thornclaw: Who?

Blossomfall: ...nevermind

Blossomfall: LET THE RESURRECTION COMMENCE!

Thornclaw: Dear StarClan help me...

Blossomfall picks up some red paint...I think...and starts painting a large circle

Blossomfall: Puts Bumblestar's body in the center Alright!

Thornclaw: ...

Blossomfall: Get out the candles!

Thornclaw: I've stopped questioning you...

Thornclaw grabs some candles and starts placing them around the circle

Blossomfall: Alright now...RESURRECT!

Thornclaw: ...

Blossomfall: RESURRECT!

Thornclaw: It's not gonna work...

As Blossomfall stares into Bumblestar's eyes, he blinks

Blossomfall: hE BLINKED! I SAW IT HE BLINKED HE BLINKED

Thornclaw: You're delusional...

Blossomfall: >:T

more gadgety noises are heard as the camera once more comes into focus in a dark room

Blossomfall: sighs Mission one was a failure, but don't expect me to give up so soon...because no matter what, I need to resurrect my incredibly stupid brother.

Heyo Moon here with a new book :) if you didn't know this is sort of a sequel to '101 Ways To Kill a Cat' so if you haven't read that yet I would go do so. I really hope you guys enjoyed!

And please tell me your thoughts below! Thanks and have a great day/night ~Moon

Episode 2

Blossomfall: adjusts camera Hello, everyone. It is currently Day Two of my experiment to bring back Bumblestar. Yesterday was a failure, but I'm certain that today I will succeed!

Blossomfall claps twice and the lights turn on. She claps a third time, and a mysterious cat hurries into view of the camera.

Blossomfall: Do you have it?

???: Yes, and it's disgusting.

Blossomfall: All apart of the job, my friend.

???: Do you actually think you can pull this off?

Blossomfall: YES. Now quit stalling and face the camera for StarClan's sake!

Thornclaw: turns Alright, geez! I brought the StarClan-forsaken body.

Thornclaw hauls the giant coffin into the area and opens it. Bumblestar's corpse has begun to deteriorate and flies swarm the body.

Thornclaw: I don't understand why you didn't take any measures to preserve the body. It'll be rotten before you revive him! That is, if you ever even succeed.

Blossomfall: Ye of little faith, Thornclaw. I'll succeed. Plus, don't you think a rotting zombie leader would be cool?

Thornclaw: No.

Briarlight: claws her way into the scene What are you two doing?

Blossomfall: in unison with Thornclaw Reviving Bumblestar—

Thornclaw: in unison with Blossomfall Watching Blossomfall go crazy—

Both: No, you're wrong. I'm right. We're...

Blossomfall: Performing a miracle.

Thornclaw: Wasting our lives.

Briarlight: Oh... kay? Will this work?

Blossomfall: YES!

Thornclaw: Ha, no.

Blossomfall: Oh, hush up. Let's get started.

Blossomfall begins the ritual as she did previously, drawing a circle of blood—I mean paint—around the body and setting up candles. She then reaches for a dusty old book with yellow pages and flips to page 666.

Blossomfall: I know where I went wrong last time. I didn't recite the words that go along with the ritual!

Briarlight: Where'd you get that book?

Blossomfall: The less you know, the better.

Thornclaw: Seriously, that looks like something you'd find in a cult's hideout.

Blossomfall: DON'T QUESTION ME.

Briarlight and Thornclaw: Sheesh.

Blossomfall: Mortuus vivere facti sunt.

Briarlight and Thornclaw exchange doubtful glances.

Blossomfall: Hoc quidem verum est. Nemo intrare interpres. Nihil omnino.

The candles flicker and the room dims a bit.

Blossomfall: CIBUM AMO!!

Everyone stares expectantly at the coffin in the center. The room darkens once more, and Bumblestar's paw twitches a bit.

Blossomfall: There! It worked! Did you see that?

Briarlight and Thornclaw: No.

Blossomfall: B-but... he moved!

Briarlight: Should I get a medicine cat?

Thornclaw: You're delusional.

Blossomfall: No! I saw it! It WORKED!

Thornclaw and Briarlight shakes their heads and exit the room, leaving Blossomfall alone to wallow in her failure.

Blossomfall: to camera Day Two may not have worked, but tomorrow will! I promise, I'll resurrect my brother if it's the last thing I do!

Brought to you by your favorite Feather!

Episode 3

Blossomfall appears in a puff of smoke wearing a pointy witch hat
Blossomfall: magically produces a wand from another puff of smoke MELOFORS MELOFORS MELOFORS randomly points at audience members
Camera Cat: clears throat If you change my head into a pumpkin I will quit.
Blossomfall: blinks innocently I wouldn't dream of it. Anyways, welcome back to 21 Ways to Resurrect Your Stupid, Stupid Brother!
Blossomfall fiddles with her hat for a moment before realizing something is missing
Blossomfall: THORNCLAW GET ME MY CLOAK
Thornclaw appears from the side and hand Blossomfall a cloak
Blossomfall: Ah yes, back to the problem.
She adjusts her cloak and clears her throat
Blossomfall: THORNCLAW GET ME MY BROTHER'S DEAD BODY
Thornclaw is seen struggling to push a coffin labeled "Bumblestar" across the stage
Blossomfall: Now open the box
Thornclaw: nU i dOn'T wANNa! There's a body in there!
Blossomfall: Do it or I'm not paying you.
Thornclaw: mutters under his breath You've never paid me before...
Blossomfall: Doesn't matter. Now open it and pull out the body.
Thornclaw reluctantly reaches in and pulls out a leg, which is soon followed by the rest of Bumblestar's decaying body
Blossomfall: Great! Now I can repair him! :-)
Blossomfall pulls out her phone and googles "repairing spell"
Blossomfall: whips out wand and waves it around REPARO
a flash of light comes out from Blossomfall's wand and hits Bumblestar's dead body
Thornclaw: ...
Blossomfall: ...
Briarlight (who just suddenly appeared): ...
Millie: BRIARBABY
Briarlight glares at Millie and pulls out her own wand

Briarlight: STUPEFY
Millie falls to the ground, stunned
Blossomfall: Alrighty then... Back to my idiot brother.
Blossomfall stares intently at Bumblestar, while Thornclaw and Briarlight slowly scoot away from her Blossomfall: pokes Bumblestar's corpse Is he alive yet?
the audience collectively holds their breath as Blossomfall continues to prod Bumblestar
Briarlight: I don't think it worked.
Millie: BRIARBABY STAY AWAY FROM THE SCARY LADY
Briarlight: Wtf you're supposed to be stunned. :/
Millie: sheepishly shrugs Oh right yeah falls over
Bumblestar's whiskers twitch
Blossomfall: ASDFGHJKLJLJLKGIL I SAW HIS WHISKERS MOVE
Thornclaw: facepalms Your crazy.
Briarlight: pops in You're*
Blossomfall: :/ Shut you're face up.
Briarlight: Your* and it's not possible to shut my face. :)
the curtain closes
Blossomfall: Hold up hold up. Why was there an audience? I thought we were in my ultra super extremely really really completely secret lab.
Cherri: Oops. ¯_(ツ)_/¯
back at the lab, Blossomfall is trying to turn on her camera
Blossomfall: clears throat Okay so, unfortunately, Day Three did not work, but tomorrow it will definitely work.
a loud crash is heard in the background, followed by a girly shriek
Blossomfall: THORNCLAW WHAT IS GOING ON AND WHY ARE YOU SCREAMING
Thornclaw bolts towards Blossomfall and leaps into her arms, causing both to topple over
Thornclaw: trembling in fear THERE WAS A SPIDERRRRRRR AND IT WAS MOVINGGGGGGG
Blossomfall: I give up.

~Cherri

Episode 4

Blossomfall: reads through papers Briarlight, how am I suppose to find ways to revive Bumblestar? All of these papers don't have anything to help out.

Briarlight: Idk, I can't help you I'm just trying to get away from mom. Please help me.

Blossomfall: Just pretend you're sleeping in the medicine cat's den; ask Jayfeather to help you make a replica of you or something.

Briarlight: sighs Fineeeee drags herself away

Millie: BRIARLIGHT!

Briarlight: Foxdung, foxdung, foxdung, foxdung!

Blossomfall: snickers and continues shuffling through papers

Blossomfall: I'm never going to find an idea.

~A few sunrises later~

Blossomfall: I GOT AN IDEA! Briarlight, can you help me drag Bumblestar here? I need to get Dovewing.

Briarlight: In a minute, I'm suffering right now.

Millie: BRIARLIGHT, LET ME HELP YOU BRUSH YOUR FUR

Blossomfall: Gotcha.

~A little while later~

Dovewing: sprays perfume on herself, makes her fur fancy, and wears fancy high heels

Blossomfall: We need you in this not shady cave or anything.

Dovewing: What-ever follows Blossomfall

Blossomfall: snorts

Dovewing: Why am I here, I have to tend to my love fluffs fur

Blossomfall: rolls eyes We need to do CPR

Dovewing: Who now?

Blossomfall: Your only true love, Bumblestar

Dovewing: Where is he?

Briarlight: I dragged him here flops onto the ground like a fish

Dovewing: Disgusting, I need to go to ShadowClan today, I have a date flutters fake eyelashes

Briarlight: vomits

Dovewing: Ugh, I need to leave before I smell of crowfood.

Blossomfall: chokes on perfume Just breathe air into him, you're the only one that can do it.

Dovewing: FINE throws purse and high heels onto the ground

Bumblestar: is dead

Dovewing: leans closer but then moves back No

Blossomfall: Go do it, now.

Dovewing: I'm going to be betraying my true love slight tear

Blossomfall: We won't tell him, just heal Bumblestar!

Briarlight: Yeah come on!

Dovewing: leans into Bumblestar's muzzle and opens mouth

Blossomfall: Yes yes yes yes yes!

A phone rings

Dovewing: Oh it's Tigerheart! I got to get it grabs the phone and goes out of the cave to get a better reception

Dovewing: whispering Ah yeah, Tigerheart. Mhm, yep, I'll be there in a few minutes starts walking away

Blossomfall: She left us slaps a mosquito flying around Bumblestar's corpse

Briarlight: She did? I wish Millie would leave me alone.

Millie: Bri-ar-li-ght, it's time for your bath!

Briarlight: MOM GO AWAY IM PLAYING MINECRAFT!

Millie: Come on, it's only going to be a few minutes~

Briarlight: IM CAPABLE OF TAKING CARE OF MYSELF!

Millie: drags Briarlight out of cave It's okayy, let's go.

Briarlight: tears streams down her face

Blossomfall: grabs clipboard I guess Dovewing giving CPR to Bumblestar is off the list crosses out the idea NEXT!

I hope you enjoyed! Sorry that it isn't that funny :') ~Whisper

Episode 5

Blossomfall: Briiiarlight, can you please adjust the camera? It's a bit glitchy right now and I'm too busy making my plan excellent to fix it.

Briarlight drags herself over.

Briarlight: Okay, fine...

Blossomfall: Great! Take five of resurrecting my stupid, stupid brother.

Blossomfall: Now, we just need some undeveloped ThunderClan cats to... uhh... help. Yeah.

Blossomfall smiles convincingly.

Briarlight: Okay... Uhhh...

Briarlight makes a sign that reads, in all pink lettering: UNDEVELOPED THUNDERCLAN CATS, PLEASE GATHER HERE

The entirety of ThunderClan, not including a few cats, swarm around the two and Bumblestar's corpse.

Briarlight: That was a mistake-

Millie: BRIIIIIARBABY

Briarlight is dragged off by Millie.

Blossomfall: No, actually- this is good.

The undeveloped ThunderClan cats begin to cheer and cry for some development.

???: WE WANT DEVELOPMENT!

???: GIVE US DEVELOPMENT!

???: PLEASE?

Blossomfall: Everyone, how about you just shut up, and I'll pick? I need the best undeveloped cats and that can only-

???: WE WANT DEVELOPMENT!

???: GIVE US DEVELOPMENT!

???: WE WANT DEVELOPMENT!

???: PLEASE??

Blossomfall: StarClan... You all are so needy. Get your own development!

Hissing and angry growling from the undeveloped cats.

Blossomfall: Anyway, Hollytuft, please come up here, and everyone else get away.

The hissing fades away.

Hollytuft: What do I need to do?

Blossomfall removes a red curtain that suddenly appeared in the air and behind it is Bumblestar.

Hollytuft gasps.

Hollytuft: Okay, what now?

Blossomfall: Well- heh. Basically, I need some- some parts to successfully resurrect Bumblestar.

Hollytuft: Parts?

Blossomfall quietly removes Hollytuft's front left leg, right ear, and back right leg. Hollytuft promptly dies and Blossomfall drags the body away. With a grin, she looks around and pulls a huge mixing bowl toward her.

Blossomfall: Sorrelstripe, can you help me with something?

Sorrelstripe dashes up to her.

Sorrelstripe: Yes? What must I do?

Blossomfall: Well- heh, uh-

Blossomfall carefully removes Sorrelstripe's front right leg, left ear, and back left leg. Sorrelstripe also promptly dies and Blossomfall kicks the body next to Hollytuft's. Blossomfall dumps the parts into the mixing bowl.

It begins to bubble.

Quickly, Blossomfall dumps some pre-packaged blood into it.

It glosses over.

Blossomfall: It's finished!

Fernsong: What's finished?

Blossomfall: Uhhhh, nothing!

Fernsong: Where are my sisters?

Blossomfall: Uhhhhh... Over the rainbow... :)

Fernsong: Can I come?

Blossomfall: Woah there, heh, uh-

Blossomfall takes Fernsong's tail, all four paws, and flanks. She kicks Fernsong's body away, hoping Ivypool won't care, and dumps the new parts into the mixture. This time it glosses right away and does not bubble.

Blossomfall: Thornclaw, I need some help!

Thornclaw loyally dashes up to her.

Thornclaw: Yes?

Blossomfall: Pry open Bumblestar's jaws, alright?

Thornclaw: Uhh... Okay...?

Thornclaw approaches the corpse and carefully pries open the tom's jaws. Blossomfall comes up behind him, holding the entire mixing bowl. She tilts it a little as she approaches. Carefully, she holds it up and inches closer to Bumblestar.

Blossomfall: Okay, don't move.

Thornclaw twitches an ear.

Blossomfall drops the bowl and it shatters immediately, soaking her pelt and Thornclaw's.

It floods the camp, but literally nobody cares.

Thornclaw: Oops... Sorry.

Blossomfall sighs.

Blossomfall: I'll try again tomorrow... Until then, goodbye!

Episode 6

Blossomfall: THORNNNCLAWWWW!

Thornclaw: looks up from the comic book he was holding upside down. What the BLEEP do you want this time?!

Briarlight: Someone's PMSing.

Blossomfall: Be quiet Briarlight. Thornclaw go get the faerie dust and small packet labeled "Mystery Acid".

Thornclaw grumbles incoherently but gets up to retrieve the faerie dust and acid.

Briarlight: sighs dramatically. Don't tell me you're trying to bring back your brother again.

Blossomfall: grins. Actually, I am! I've already found the recipe in the sketchy attic and the ingredients I ordered off Ameowzon just arrived.

Briarlight: sighs. Oh no...

Blossomfall: Hey, why don't you go find the recipe I left somewhere in the sketchy attic?

Briarlight drags herself out of the room. A short while later, a wild Millie can be heard followed by the cry of a tame Briarlight feeling threatened.

Blossomfall: cackles evilly. Now I can get on with my plan...

Thornclaw returns with a jar of faerie dust and a small vial of "Mystery Acid".

Blossomfall: There you are! Now go bring me that box over in the corner. Don't open it.

Thornclaw: opens box. AHHHHHHHHHH

Thornclaw shrieks loudly and covers his eyes.

Thornclaw: trembling in terror. Th-there w-wa-was a sp-sp-spid-spider in the box...

Blossomfall: shrugs indifferently. Oops, wrong box. I think Bumblestar should be in the other box in the other corner.

Thornclaw: Ew fine. :(

Thornclaw opens the box containing Bumblestar's body and quickly runs off.

Blossomfall: Hmph. I'm not that scary. Anyways, time to make that magical potion!

Blossomfall opens the vial of "Mysterious Acid" and dumps it into the jar of faerie dust. She stirs the concoction and watches in glee as it bubbles and turns a vibrant green.

Blossomfall: Finally! This will definitely work because it has good reviews on Ameowzon.

As Blossomfall walks over to Bumblestar to inspect his body, a mysterious cat wearing a grey hood slips into the room. The hooded cat then produces a tiny vial of pink liquid, and delicately pours it into the faerie dust concoction. The pink liquid causes a small explosion when it touches the vibrant green concoction, making Blossomfall turn around to face the hooded cat.

Blossomfall: blinks. Dovewing? What are you doing here?

Dovewing: I uh, was... uhm... admiring your... tail..?

Blossomfall: swoons Aww, thank you! Now, hand over that jar please.

Dovewing passes the jar to an oblivious Blossomfall with a guilty look on her face. While Blossomfall pours the liquid into Bumblestar's mouth, Dovewing watches nervously. After waiting for what seems like an eternity,

Nothing happens.

Blossomfall: Dangit! Something went wrong.

Dovewing: I erm, m-might've uh... acce-

Blossomfall: Whatcha say? I can't hear you.

Dovewing: I think you were supposed to pour it through his ear.

Blossomfall: ...

Dovewing: fiddles with magical thumbs

Blossomfall: Oh that's right! Whoops. Thanks Dovewing, but I think I'll try again tomorrow.

Episode 7

Blossomfall: Alright! I promise today's method will actually work!

She puts on a bright smile at the camera and turns to Thornclaw, who is looking exasperated next to her.

Blossomfall: Are you ready, Thornclaw?

Thornclaw: No but you'll claw me to death if I refuse.

Blossomfall: grins. Perfect! Fetch the body, will you?

Thornclaw lets out a pained groan and stands up, giving his head a quick shake as if clearing his thoughts (most of which likely involve the 367 ways he's devised to murder Blossomfall).

He tugs Bumblestar's rotting corpse out by his tail, coughing loudly as a cloud of flies swarms up.

Blossomfall: Perfect! He's already in terrible condition! Now, we must cut off his tail to save in case this plan fails. Which, of course, it won't.

Thornclaw rolls his eyes while simultaneously gagging as he drops the limp tail and fetches a sharp stone.

Blossoms lets out a sharp meow and pulls out her iPhone

Blossomfall: It says here that the removal must be performed with cat teeth.

Thornclaw: Okay, should I yank mine out?

Blossomfall: What? No!

Thornclaw: Oh, so yours?

He's holding back a laugh.

Blossomfall: Quit it! It says here that it needs to be severed with the bite of a living cat, and I just got my makeup on, so don't you dare suggest I do it.

Her face is smeared with dirt and ground up poppy petals. She looks a bit like a clown.

Editor's Note: We think this description is rather accurate.

Thornclaw: sighs. If you say so, oh amazing Blossomfall.

She grins as Thornclaw crouches next to Bumblestar's body, opening his mouth near the base of the tom's tail.

Thornclaw: StarClan save me...

Suddenly, a bright white light fills the room, and when it passes, the tail is cleanly cut off, Thornclaw stared with wide eyes down at it.

Blossomfall: Oh, cool. StarClan magic is basically the same as teeth.

Blossomfall smiles brightly.

Blossomfall: The next step is to take the tail-less body and burn it while chanting Bumblestar's favorite song.

Thornclaw: weakly. I don't think this is a good idea. Why can't you just bury him like a normal cat just move on?

Blossomfall gets close to Thornclaw's face and lets out a low growl.

Blossomfall: tightly. Because he is my brother, I love him very much, and I am going to bring him back so we can finally kill Millie and end his life once and for all.

Thornclaw sticks out his tongue, licking Blossomfall's nose. She flinches back and whacks him with a sheathed paw.

Thornclaw: Fine, let's just burn the body.

Blossomfall pads over to a bush and pulls out a bottle of lighter fluid and a match. She drenches Bumblestar's corpse. The flies abandon their picking and fly away from the pair of cats.

Thornclaw: This seems dangerous.

Blossomfall lights the match away from the corpse and takes a couple steps back.

Blossomfall: You betcha!

She throws the match into the corpse and dives away. Thornclaw follows her just as the corpse is lit, flames dancing around for a few seconds before it's incinerated.

Blossomfall: Wait, foxdung, I forgot to sing the song! Mousedung! Foxdung! I must got bees in my brains!

Thornclaw: Yes, that's the reason it didn't work..

Episode 8

Thornclaw: Look look! I'm starting out a chapter! Am I important yet?

Blossomfall: Silly Thornclaw... Anyway, I really, really promise today's method will work!

Thornclaw: Yeah yeah, I doubt that-

Blossomfall: SHUT UP! And- can you go get me the body?

Thornclaw silently pads away to go drag Bumblestar's corpse over.

Meanwhile, Blossomfall seems to have forgotten that it was burnt to a crisp last chapter since she's jumping in circles around a strange patterning on the ground. It appears to be somewhat in the shape of a circle and in the middle, there is a slightly elevated platform.

Blossomfall: So, okay, basically, I saw this game and the point is to find the mafia and kill them- that is, if you're a townie...

Blossomfall grins evilly before Rosepetal and Mousewhisker sprint over.

Rosepetal and Mousewhisker: TOWN OF SALEM!

Blossomfall: YES! I knew someone would show up eventually! Now we just have to wait for the lobby to fill up.

Cherryfall: Ooh, a game? What's this?

Poppyfrost: Ooooh, a game! Can I play? How do I win?

Molewhisker: I want to play too!

Honeyfur: Can I play?

Leafshade: I want to play!

Lilyheart: Me too!

Larksong: I want to play as well!

Dewnose: Same!

Ambermoon: Me as well?

Blossomfall: Okay, we have twelve players now and the game can start! Usually, lobbies can fill up to fifteen but twelve is fine too. The roles will be dished out shortly.

Bumblestar's corpse is dragged in by Thornclaw. A gasp echoed through the cats gathered in the circle. They stare at it.

Blossomfall: Nice job getting it back together! This game will help us determine the cause of Bumblestar's death so we can reverse it! Okay, anyways, everyone, please go over to the camera and state your role. Be quiet too!

Rosepetal dashes over first.

Rosepetal: Godfather.

Camera: The Godfather is the leader of organized crime. Your job is to kill all townies and win with the rest of your mafia buddies. You have access to mafia chat and you can attack a player each night to kill them.

Rosepetal heads back, composed.

Mousewhisker sprints past her and skids to a stop in front of the camera.

Mousewhisker: Jailor.

Camera: The jailor is a prison guard who secretly detains suspects. You may choose one person during the day to jail for the night. You may anonymously talk with your prisoner. You can choose to attack your prisoner, and if the prisoner has a night ability, they cannot use it. Your job is to lynch or kill all evildoers.

Mousewhisker turns and walks back.

Cherryfall heads over to the camera.

Cherryfall: Vigilante.

Camera: You are a militant officer willing to bend the law to enact justice. You can choose to take justice into your own hands and shoot someone. You can only shoot your gun 3 times, and if you kill a townie, you will die. Your job is to lynch or kill all evildoers.

Suddenly, the entire chapter speeds up, since it's clear the author is pretty bored.

For clarity, Poppyfrost is the mafioso, Molewhisker is the escort, Honeyfur is the jester, Leafshade is the sheriff, Lilyheart is the serial killer, Larksong is the medium, Dewnose is the doctor, and Ambermoon is the framer.

Blossomfall is the mayor and Thornclaw is an executioner.

The game has begun.

Nobody says anything.

Poppyfrost: Why is there a red word that says 'mafioso' on the side of my vision- Oh, fox-dung.

Lilyheart: Wow, lynch much?

Honeyfur: So, uh... Leafshade is mafia..?

Everyone goes silent.

Leafshade: What? No, I'm not!... You're, uh, an executioner!

Poppyfrost: Lynch!

Molewhisker: Lynch!

Blossomfall sighs, looking at the noobs through a narrowed gaze. Rosepetal glances at Mousewhisker.

The voting has begun.

Molewhisker votes for Honeyfur.

Poppyfrost votes for Honeyfur.

Lilyheart votes for Honeyfur.

Larksong votes for Honeyfur.

Dewnose votes for Honeyfur.

Ambermoon votes for Honeyfur.

Thornclaw votes for Honeyfur.

Honeyfur: Wait, no!

Honeyfur: It's not me! I'm innocent!

Molewhisker: Lies!

Honeyfur: Please don't vote guilty!

The votes are revealed and everyone voted guilty.

Honeyfur: Hahahaha, suckers! I win now! Thank you!

Molewhisker scuffs his paw irritably against the ground.

Blossomfall: Idiots.

Honeyfur was the jester.

Camera: Blossomfall, the episode is supposed to be over by now!

Blossomfall: Oh, heh, sorry guys, um, can you quick- uhh, help me- with- Bumblestar--

Everyone wanders over.

Blossomfall: Be fast- uh, circle up, chant some weird words, and then see if it works?

Everyone begins to chant incoherently.

Nothing happens.

Thornclaw: Well, what a great failure we had today-

Blossomfall: Shut up or I'll claw your fur off.

Written by Lamb :)

Episode 9

Blossomfall: Okay. Last time was a bit of a mistake, but we don't talk about episode eight.

Thornclaw: Fourth wall-?

Blossomfall glares heavily at Thornclaw and he shrinks back.

Blossomfall: Anyways, I think we're going to bring back...

Blossomfall glances at the camera and whisks her paws into the air. Thunder booms behind her, smoke drifts in, and after it clears, she has a black, tattered outfit, and a witch hat.

Blossomfall: ...the witch. >:)

Thornclaw: Uhh, okay? What will that do to bring back Bumblestar?

Blossomfall: Oh, you'll see.

Blossomfall lets out an evil, witch laugh. Classic.

Blossomfall flicks a paw and a broom comes flying over to her. She leaps atop the broom and grins down at Thornclaw.

Blossomfall: Let me go grab some... items... to heal Bumblestar.

Thornclaw: Okay... bye?

Blossomfall flies off, and she soon settles down in a random swamp.

Blossomfall, holding a camera: Okay, so basically, we'll need to get frog legs and a little bit of frog-disease. If we get a bit of catmint too, everything will be okay.

She turns and sees a frog. Excitedly, she heads toward it and slices its throat. She carefully tears off both legs and then she looked at it. The she-cat takes her claws and scrapes off a bit of frog-disease from its skin. She then dumps the rest in a vial she pulled out of her pocket.

Carefully, she pockets the vial.

The she-cat then jumps quickly back onto her broom. It bucks her off.

Blossomfall: I feel like I'm forgetting something.

Blossomfall: Oh well. I'll remember it later when I don't need it anymore.

She jumps back onto the broom and whisks her paws. The sky suddenly darkens and as she flies off to where Thornclaw last was.

She arrives back at camp and Bumblestar's body is laid out, carefully prepared with herbs surrounding it. There is a light circle in the dirt drawn around him.

Blossomfall claps her paws and her witch outfit dissipates into thin air. She drops right off the broom, cursing as she falls, and hits the ground with a thump.

Getting back up, she heads over to Bumblestar and stares down at him with a frown whisking over her features. The she-cat lashes her tail, takes out the vial, and then stands up importantly in front of him.

Blossomfall: Okay... So...

She waves her paws once more and the witch-cauldron appears at her side. Excitedly, she dumps the vial in.

It bubbles up towards the rim and the she-cat steps back, ears flicking.

Thornclaw: Is everything going alright?

Blossomfall: Yes, yes. I just feel like I'm forgetting something...

As the mixture simmers down, the liquid inside seems to dissipate into thin air, and at the bottom reveals a small, tiny frog.

Blossomfall: AWW! A frog!

It turns slightly to the left and it blinks once. Suddenly, three more frogs have appeared.

Thornclaw: Um...?

As the four frogs blink, sixty more appear. They quickly overtake the cauldron and spill over.

Blossomfall: Oops. I forgot something, I guess.

The frogs continue to multiply as they slowly fill up camp.

Random ThunderClan cat: Goodbye, cruel world...

Random ThunderClan cat slips beneath the layer of frogs.

Blossomfall: Guess we're screwed!

The she-cat manages to get her way over to the camera and she takes it in her paws.

Blossomfall: Goodbye...!

She slips beneath the layer of frogs, though the camera glitches and underneath is a disco party of diseased frogs and dead cats.

Blossomfall: You exposed us!

Angry mutters come from the cats that are partying.

Camera Cat: Sorry, I didn't mean to, I'll turn it off now!

Episode 10

Before literally anything can happen, Blossomfall shoots a sharp glare at Thornclaw.

Thornclaw: What???

Blossomfall: I can see the snarky comment on your lips. Don't you dare.

Thornclaw: StarClan, okay...

Blossomfall grins and turns to the camera.

Blossomfall: Okay. So... today we're reviving Bumblestar, as usual. And although it usually doesn't work I think I've found a real way that actually works and will totally revive him.

Blossomfall: Firstly, we must gather the Clan...

Blossomfall turns to Thornclaw, flicking her tail sharply.

The lights dim and a red curtain suddenly appears. A light drizzle spritzes the air. A soft murmur spreads across the gathered Clan as they turn to face the stage.

Thornclaw: Hello, Clanmates! Today we have a fantastical magical act - reviving a cat!

The Clan collectively gasps.

The curtain reveals Blossomfall sitting in front of Bumblestar's rotting corpse.

Blossomfall: Oh brother, how I miss you so...

She sniffles.

Blossomfall: If only you could be alive again.

Random ThunderClan Extra: Hahahahaha, I think we have a remedy for that!

Blossomfall: What? When were you in this scene?! Or... any scene for that matter??

Random ThunderClan Extra: Oh. Oops.

The Clan looks around, a little confused, until thunder booms overhead. Briarlight's special effects are clearly working.

Blossomfall: Well, if I have anything to say about it, then my brother shall be alive by the end of tonight!

A montage of Blossomfall appears on the screen. She works over Bumblestar's corpse first, then returns to a small booklet, then heads back to the corpse... only to skitter back over to the textbook.

And when she is done, she pads back over to her brother. She stands in front of him, looking down at him.

Blossomfall: Once I plug these two cords together... he will be alive once more!

The Clan holds their breath, watching with wide eyes. Lightning crackles overhead and rain begins to splatter on the ground. A few cats hiss and grumble at the rain, but nobody moves.

Blossomfall connects the two cords.

Dewnose: This play was a failure!

Blossomfall scrambles for a few moments, attempting to try to get the method to work, yet nothing happens.

Ambermoon: Why did I attend this play?! This entire episode was a complete waste! It's so stupid and absolutely ridiculous.

Blossomfall turns and narrows her eyes at Ambermoon. The storm has picked up and is now tossing leaves and sticks around Blossomfall almost threateningly. The she-cat looks straight at Ambermoon.

Blossomfall: Not as stupid as your name.

The Clan goes silent at the burn.

Thornclaw: Ouch...

Episode 11

Bumblestar: is still dead

Blossomfall: Wow Bumblestar is still dead.

Thornclaw: Yeah, I see the problem.

Blossomfall: Any ideas?

Thornclaw: In fact, I do!

Blossomfall: Please tell me I'm desperate. I need him back right now. Poor Briarlight needs a break from Millie.

Briarlight and Millie screaming in the distance as Briarlight tries to run from her mother.

Millie: Come back here, Briarlight bby

Briarlight: AHHHHH someone help!!!

Thornclaw: I see that problem too. My idea was to use mice and make them run in a wheel trying to generate enough energy into Bumblestar.

Blossomfall: That sounds like a...

Thornclaw: I know, I'm so amazing!

Blossomfall: sighs We have to get some warriors to fetch some mice then. whispering I hate this.

Thornclaw: Lovely! claps paws together

~Later~

Thornclaw: Berrynose, I see you trying to eat a live mouse.

Berrynose: mouse still in mouth I-I'm not

Thornclaw: eyes Berrynose We need that mouse to generate energy!

Berrynose: Fine...drops mouse

Thornclaw: Thank you. Blossomfall, I got all the mice, where are those running thingys?

Blossomfall: Yeah I got them right next to Bumblestar.

Thornclaw: Cool beans my fam squad

Blossomfall: Please don't do that again.

Thornclaw: Noted :(

Blossomfall: All the mice are on the wheels.

Thornclaw: The wheels look sort of familiar? Where did you get them?

Blossomfall: I got them from the Dark Forest. I stole their food bowls.

Thornclaw: Okayyyy then. Well, I switched on the power button and the cords are all linked to Bumblestar.

Blossomfall: I'm so tired, I really doubt this is going to work.

Thornclaw: Just turn up the power, it can help bring that jumpstart to Bumblestar.

Blossomfall: Like a car? Jumpstarting a car?

Thornclaw: What is a car.

Blossomfall: I mean monster on the Thunderpath.

Thornclaw: uwu I see okay, so the mice are running and we're generating electricity to shock his heart so it will hopefully bring him back to life.

Blossomfall: What is happening.

Bumblestar: fur starts to be electrocuted causing static electricity

Thornclaw: We're being sucked into Bumblestar's fur, we're all gonna get stuck!

Blossomfall: Aw, heck no

Berrynose: I just wanted some fresh-kill.

Thornclaw: Well, that didn't work as planned.

Blossomfall: I knew it...

Heya, Whisper here with an update still busy with school lol xD I hope you enjoyed <3

Episode 12

Thornclaw: Blossomfall, you know we're kind of... running low on ideas.

Blossomfall: I mean, not really...

Blossomfall turns to her little pink handbag and draws out a small book, flipping through a few pages. She traces her paw over a few words, muttering something.

Blossomfall: Alright!

Thornclaw looks suspiciously at her as she sits down, curling her tail over her paws and straightening a nonexistent bow.

Blossomfall: Hello everyone and welcome to Episode 12 of 21 Ways To Resurrect Your Stupid, Stupid Brother! What a mouthful, amirite?

Blossomfall laughs.

Blossomfall: Okay, so, for today's episode we're going to revive Bumblestar.

Thornclaw: That's... what we do every time.

Blossomfall: Whatever, Thornclaw. Get outta here. I don't need you.

Blossomfall: Okay, so first-

Random ThunderClan Cat: Wait, Blossomfall, I got something for you!

Blossomfall: Oh reallllly? What is it?

Random ThunderClan Cat: A flower!

Random ThunderClan Cat nudges her a flower with wilted petals.

Blossomfall: Thank you!

Suddenly the sun is in the middle of the sky, casting bright, warm rays down upon ThunderClan.

Blossomfall: I'm tired... Let me go quick take a nap.

Blossomfall trots off into the warrior's den, snoozing away. The day passes, the stench of Bumblestar's untouched body beginning to fill the camp all the more than usual.

Blossomfall wakes up and yawns, trotting outside.

Random ThunderClan Cat 2: We need you for patrol, Blossomfall!

Blossomfall: Sigh... okay.

Blossomfall and co. go on patrol. She returns later.

Thornclaw: You know Blossomfall, you still have your stupid, stupid brother to attend to.

Blossomfall: Yeah yeah but look I got a mouse!

Camera Cat: Blossomfall, stop procrastinating! This episode only has a few seconds left and we can't really waste it as much as you already have!

Blossomfall: Shut up. I'm not procrastinating.

Camera Cat: You so are. You've spent a day avoiding your brother because you don't know what to do!

Blossomfall: Shut up I said!

Camera Cat: You're a procrastinator.

Blossomfall: Well I learned from the best!

Camera Cat: ????

Blossomfall: CG admins, of course!

Camera Cat: ...

CG Admins: oops

Blossomfall snaps her fingers, glancing over at her brother, and nothing happens.

Blossomfall: Well, what a success this chapter was!

Thornclaw: How kind!

Camera Cat: Hey, I tried!

Blossomfall: I wasn't even talking to you!

Camera Cat: That's ridiculous, I'm the one who films them!

Thornclaw: And I help!

As they fight, they continually get louder and angrier.

CG Admins quietly slink away.

Episode 13

Thornclaw: Blossomfall, Blossomfall! I found an idea!

Blossomfall: Sorry, what? I'm doing my homework.

Thornclaw: What? Since when did you go to school?!

Blossomfall: A few minutes ago. Briarlight told me it was making her super-duper smart so I thought it might be a good idea to go.

Thornclaw: ??????

Blossomfall: Don't worry, I'm learning about genetic codes and revivals!

Thornclaw: Oh, good. So it'll help?

Blossomfall: Mhm!

She grins widely, then goes back to her homework, where she proceeds to scribble messily all over her paper. She shrugs, tossing it away, flicking her tail.

Blossomfall: Meh. Too hard.

A bell rings in the distance.

Blossomfall: Oops. I'm late. I've got to go- be back later!

Thornclaw: Bye :)

Blossomfall goes to school and returns in a few hours.

Blossomfall: I got assigned a test tomorrow!

Thornclaw: Study then???

Camera Cat: Yeah, please do so. It could help Bumblestar.

Blossomfall: That's the entire reason I'm doing this!

Camera Cat: Intelligence...?

Blossomfall: No, this is for my brother.

Blossomfall smiles convincingly, though her eyes glitter furiously.

Camera Cat: Okay okay, StarClan. Calm down. Just study.

Blossomfall: I don't want to. It's boring :(

Thornclaw: Well if you fail then you won't be able to test on Bumblestar!

Blossomfall: I'll do it anyways... I've got a Science Fair Project coming up soon anyway, I'll make it a two-part sort of thing.

Thornclaw stares suspiciously at her.

Blossomfall: Fine, I'll study.

Blossomfall studies for approximately 5 minutes before tossing it away and then sleeping because she's a tired she-cat who needs her beauty sleep, okay?

She wakes up the next day and forgets about the test. She goes to school.

Thornclaw looks at her grades and he backs away, eyes wide.

Thornclaw: Oof.

Blossomfall rushes in, crying.

Blossomfall: I-I failed

Thornclaw comforts her while she cries.

Blossomfall: I got a negative 5 percent!

Thornclaw: How is that possible?

Blossomfall: I don't know! I just know I got the worst grade in all of the world!

Thornclaw: Well you said you'd do that experiment...

Blossomfall: I'm just a bad test taker, okay?

Blossomfall sniffles, rising to her paws and pulling a few materials out of her backpack. She drags over Bumblestar's body and manages to set up an experiment.

Blossomfall: Okay... papers... surveyor... assistance...

Blossomfall: Okay. Let me just... copy this genetic code... And then...!

Slowly she pulls out a few tufts of fur out of him and inspects it. She picks at it for a moment and then sniffs it. Blossomfall eventually, after injecting something into it, she puts it back on.

Thornclaw: Nothing's happening... is something wrong?

Blossomfall: It didn't work! I was sure... it was going to! I thought-!

Camera Cat: Well you failed for a reason I mean-

Blossomfall lunges at the camera, shouting, and then the camera shuts off.

Episode 14

Blossomfall: Greetings, toms and she-cats, tomkits and she-kits, and welcome back to another episode of 21 Ways to Resurrect your Stupid, Stupid Brother! Today I'll be using Bumblestar.

She waves her paw to Bumblestar's charred, tail-less corpse.

Thornclaw: muttering. You use him every time. It's not like you have twenty-one dead brothers and use one for each episode.

Blossomfall: Well, it's not my fault that I only had one brother, is it? And by the way, they also have to be incredibly stupid to fit the requirements. Otherwise, they don't get the honor of being on this wonderful show!

Thornclaw: Ahem. Should we begin?

Blossomfall: Indeed!

She turns back to the camera, flicking Thornclaw across the nose as she does so and flashing a smile because cats can definitely smile.

Blossomfall: Today, I've got a very special cat with me. Everybody, meet Yellowfang :D

She turns around to face a curtain and gives a very slight nod at a face that happens to be peeking out of it. A few seconds pass as nothing happens; Blossomfall clears her throat and nods again, a little more obviously.

A cat hurries out, snarling as they trip on the edge of the curtain. As they stalk over to Blossomfall, they fix her with a furious glare.

Yellowfang: What in StarClan's name could be so important it couldn't wait until after I had finished my shrew?

Blossomfall: whispering. Remember, you're meant to wave to the camera and greet everybody.

Blossomfall: This is Yellowfang, an expert on healing cats! You saved a cat from nearly dying who goes by the name of Cloudtail when you were just an apprentice, correct?

Yellowfang: Cloudpelt.

Blossomfall: Aha. So this Cloudpelt died and you revived him?

Yellowfang: No, rogues attacked him and tore his belly open. I helped him heal-

Blossomfall: Perfect! You see, I have a problem. My brother is, uh, dead. He has been for a while now, actually. I was wondering if you could fix him up?

Yellowfang stares at her dubiously and opens her mouth to object but Blossomfall is already leading her to the corpse.

Blossomfall: So, here he is! This is Bumblestar. Uh... I suppose you'd need payment, so I'm sure he'd be delighted to give you prey when you revive him. As... as a show of gratitude.

Yellowfang gingerly reaches forward to sniff the corpse and flinches back. She glares at it, studying its scorch marks and wound where the tail once was. She backs away.

Yellowfang: muttering. Things have happened to this cat.

Blossomfall: Alright, so fix him!

Yellowfang: What?

Blossomfall: Do your thing. Revive him!

Yellowfang, not wanting to spend more time then she can here, quickly waves her paws around in circles six times. She mumbles some words and Blossomfall interrupts her.

Blossomfall: Wait, so what do you say? Was that 'wavy Breezestar Clan'? I need to know so I can resurrect other cats too when they die.

Yellowfang was, in fact, saying 'save me StarClan' over and over but she makes something up.

Yellowfang: It's not cat language. It's a special StarClan language for dead cats. You won't understand it.

Blossomfall: Say it louder.

Yellowfang curses before clearing her throat.

Yellowfang: Ay ree zing ang! Ay ree zing ang! Ay, ree zing ang anoo! Ay, ree zing-

Thornclaw: Stop! Someone's coming.

Briarlight drags herself over, looking frustrated.

Briarlight: Are you reviving him? Please do. Millie's being worse than ever before.

Every cat stops speaking as they hear a familiar voice distantly speaking. They all listen.

Millie: Your families, your friends, your very selves are in imminent danger! Any moment, it could happen to you. Help protect the ones already victims of it! My poor daughter, Briarlight, has suffered for so long. She is so brave, so strong... only she could possibly hold through for so long. Help support her! Help support us!

Distant cries and yowls of support ring out and Briarlight grimaces as Millie continues her speech.

Millie: She needs our help, she needs our kindness. To Briarlight!

Marching is heard and the ground shakes rhythmically. The sound grows closer and louder by the second. Blossomfall stares at Briarlight, panic in her eyes, and nudges Yellowfang.

Blossomfall: Quickly! Quickly, finish your thing. Millie's coming, you have to do it quickly!

Yellowfang mumbles something incoherent and shoots Blossomfall a glare, eyes blazing.

Yellowfang: This is stupid. Stupid cats these days, thinking you can revive your friends just like that... well, you can't. I'm going. You stupid she-cat made me leave my shrew and by now someone would've eaten it! I'm going to claw their ears off...

She spins around and stalks back, slicing a claw through the curtain and creating a gap through which she jumps and vanishes. Blossomfall turns back to the camera, looking disappointed.

Camera Cat: Uh... Cut...?

Blossomfall: whispering frantically. Not yet, I still need to conclude the episode!

Blossomfall: I'm afraid there's not much more we can do... well, we'll see you in the next episode. With a better method. Shouldn't use grouchy old fools, I suppose, they don't know anything!

The marching grows louder and Briarlight begins to drag herself away as fast as she can. Suddenly, the curtain crumples into a heap as it is pulled down and a crowd of cats is revealed, along with a startled-looking Yellowfang lying on the ground where they'd trampled her obliviously.

Briarlight gasps in effort as she tries to drag herself under the tripod the camera rests on, but she is too slow. The cats all cry out in unison and triumphantly race forward. The camera is knocked off the table and everything goes black, followed by a muffled yelp as Thornclaw is knocked over.

It's Pebble here with my first update on this book :D Thanks for reading!

Episode 15

Blossomfall: Today we're going to SUCCESSFULLY resurrect Bumblestar! looks in distaste at other 14 attempts

Camera Cat: flipping through random pink, sparkly notebook Uh, ma'am? That's not in the budget-

Blossomfall: Add it then.

Camera Cat: silence

Blossomfall: silence

Camera Cat: dies of exposure to Blossomfall's amazingness

Briarlight: hauls herself over to Blossomfall, who is busily opening a coffin Hello, what's going on here? Ooh, a charred husk of camera cat? Nice! I've been thinking that might taste good with roasted pineapple salsa, or maybe a pumpkin frittata-

Blossomfall: Where's Millie?

Briarlight: DON'T SPEAK THE DEVIL'S NAME-

Millie: OHHHHHH, BRIARLIGHT! COME TO MAMA? IM GOING TO-

Millie drags away Briarlight , who is flailing her arms and praying to Satan.

Blossomfall: finally unlocks coffin to reveal Bumblestar's body Wow, this thing smells.

Thornclaw: walks in, smells the rot, tries to walk out Not again-

Blossomfall: whips around AHA!

Thornclaw: suddenly interested What?

Blossomfall: How would you like to join the Totally Not A Scam Cult? That is the perfect position!

Thornclaw: Really? Where? looks around excitedly

Blossomfall: Right here. pushes Thornclaw into magical pit

Blossomfall begins to mix a special concoction. She starts with the glue, and then the leaves, and then the chocolate chips-

Blossomfall: Wait, really? I add chocolate?

Fourth Wall: Welp. flips 47 days without a breach sign back to zero

After the chocolate chips, Blossomfall adds the food coloring and the blood.

Blossomfall: The final ingredient.

All watching cats' eyes dilate as Blossomfall raises her glass pipette to drop a single drop of glitter glue.

Blossomfall: Time to test!

Thornclaw has died due to jealousy of the shininess of the glue.*

Blossomfall: Who needs him, let's just try, try again! carefully splashes liquid onto Bumblestar

The liquid begins to bubble as all the cat's eyes grow wider. Blossomfall begins to chant the sacred prayer.

Blossomfall: A wiki wiki mai lohi lohi, Lawe mai I ko papa he'e nalu, flyin' by on the Hawaiian roller coaster rideeeeee!

Suddenly, the fizz stops, and there is just a soggy, dead Bumblestar.

Blossomfall: REALLY? I missed F.R.I.E.N.D.S for this!

Episode 16

Blossomfall: Hello and welcome to my endless suffering!

Thornclaw: sigh We're doing this again?

Blossomfall: Didn't you hear? Endless!

Thornclaw: Hah. No. My doctor is already yelling at me and it's only been 16 episodes.

Blossomfall: ¯_(ツ)_/¯

Blossomfall: Anyways, let's get started!

Thornclaw: Yes, let's.

Blossomfall: SO. I have a theory.

Thornclaw: A theory? That's new. Let's hear it then.

Blossomfall: You know how whenever we killed Millie she would always resurrect?

Thornclaw: You killed Millie!?

Blossomfall: Exactly! So why isn't Bumblestar coming back to life?

Thornclaw: Because he's not an insane psychopath who will stop at nothing to get what he wants.

Blossomfall: Ahem points Bumblestripe's Insanity

Thornclaw: Okay you have a point...

Blossomfall: Besides Millie wasn't a psychopath she just has an obsession over Briarlight

Thornclaw: Don't look at me, she's your mom

Blossomfall: Moving on, why doesn't Bumblestar come back to life? Well, I think it's because we kept the body!

Blossomfall opens an old trunk to reveal the body of a cat, flies swirling around it

Thornclaw: gags

Blossomfall: So maybe, if we destroy the body, he'll come back!

Thornclaw: Whatever you want, honey...

Blossomfall: Great! We're going back to basics >:D

The two go to a fire-pit, fresh wood sitting in the bottom of it

Blossomfall: strikes match >:)))

Thornclaw: Oh dear...

Blossomfall: Shut up patrol guy throws the match into the fire-pit

Flames burst out of the wood and crackle hungrily

Blossomfall: Let us feed you my sweeties >:3

Thornclaw: We have kids-

Blossomfall: Throws Bumblestar's body into the fire BURN HAHAHA BURN

Thornclaw: You know I've done many things in life but never have I imagined burning a body...

Blossomfall: Oh, this is your first? COME CLOSER!

Thornclaw: ...Should I be worried?

Blossomfall: Yes.

The body slowly burns away, revealing darkened, charred bones

Blossomfall: Perfect! Now we just wait

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: Nothing is happening.

Blossomfall: What? I was sure this would work!

Thornclaw: Well you're sure about a lot of things, sweetheart-

Blossomfall: tHEN WHY IS MILLIE INVINCIBLE!?!?!? sobs

Thornclaw: There, there pats back supportingly

Blossomfall: looking determined wipes tears I WILL FIND A WAY!

Moon here with another episode hope you enjoyedddd <33

Episode 17

Blossomfall: Hello, and welcome to another episode of 21 Ways to Resurrect Your Stupid, Stupid Brother!

Thornclaw: How will we resurrect Bumblestar this time?

Blossomfall: So, I've finally realized what we've been doing wrong all this time!

Thornclaw: Attempting in the first place?

Blossomfall: SILENCE, PEASANT.

Thornclaw: Geez, alright.

Blossomfall: You fool! Everything I've tried so far included Bumblestar's body!

Thornclaw: Yes... because it's a necessary component, right?

Blossomfall: WRONG. Well, I will be using his body, but not as we've usually been doing.

Thornclaw: Would you stop being cryptic and just spit it out, lady?

Blossomfall: YOU WILL SPEAK TO ME RESPECTFULLY, YOUNG MISTER.

Thornclaw: flinches Uh... alright. Continue.

Blossomfall: We need to go to the Dark Forest and drag him back!

Thornclaw: Is that even possible?

Blossomfall: Sure it is!

Thornclaw: Wait... you said something about a body? Didn't we destroy that last episode?

Blossomfall: Ahem, this is a spoof, remember? We don't need consistency.

Thornclaw: nods in understanding Fair point.

Fourth Wall: :')

Blossomfall: Alright, here's the plan, Stan.

Thornclaw: I'm not Stan, I'm Thornclaw.

Blossomfall: And soon you'll be Dead if you don't stop interrupting. Thornclaw shrinks back So, we're going to keep Bumblestar's out and ready. When we go to the Dark Forest and bring his spirit here, we can just shove him back in!

Thornclaw: I see, like, a million ways this won't work.

Blossomfall: Hey, remember that time when I asked for your opinion? Yeah, me neither.

Thornclaw: Fine, fine. How are we gonna go to the Dark Forest?

Blossomfall: We're going to jump into the Moonpool.

Thornclaw: WHAT?

Blossomfall: It's foolproof!

Thornclaw: Wouldn't that just send us to StarClan?

Blossomfall: Well, I figure that once we get there, they'll all realize that we're terrible cats and deserve to spend eternity in the Underworld.

Thornclaw: What a lovely thought.

Blossomfall: Enough out of you. Let's go!

At the Moonpool...

Thornclaw: hesitantly I don't want to do this...

Blossomfall: Sure you do. shoves Thornclaw in

Thornclaw: AHHH!

He lands in the pool gracelessly, sending glittering droplets of moisture rocketing through the air.

Blossomfall: FOR BUMBLESTAR! jumps in after him

The two cats doggy-paddle around the pool for a bit, but nothing happens.

Thornclaw: grumbles I knew this wouldn't work. And now I'm all wet...

Blossomfall: B-but... I was so sure! How could I have failed?

Camera Cat: I should get paid extra for you getting all my fancy equipment wet.

The screen fades to black.

Blossomfall: I said, ohsoveryextrodinarilyremarkablytremendouslyandlslightlyterrifyinglyunint you- you dull-witted sloth!

Thornclaw: I don't think... we're supposed to know what a... sloth... is...

Blossomfall: Of course we know what sloths are! They're those pedophile-like brown things from those sloth memes.

Thornclaw: ...

Blossomfall: Okay.

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: I'm scared of knowing what you do in your spare time.

Blossomfall: I think up ways to resurrect Bumblestar, duh. Speaking of Bumblestar, I recently obtained some wisdom from a wise, wise, and extremely old cat passing through our territory. Perhaps you've heard of Rock 2.0?

Thornclaw: Rock was unreliable, so how can Rock 2.0 be reliable?

Blossomfall: Rock 2.0's wisdom is far greater than yours, so sHuT uP sCrUb!

Thornclaw: Rude :(

Blossomfall: Alright! That's it! I've had enough of your incessant whining. You're replacing Millie as the living sacrifice.

Thornclaw: cries I never volunteered for this! I'm too young and handsome to die!

Blossomfall: Hopefully you won't feel too much pain when you die. Now, lay down.

Thornclaw reluctantly lies down

Just as Blossomfall is about to stab Thornclaw, a crazed fan pounces on top of him

Blossomfall: shurgs Okay. proceeds to stab

Thornclaw's Fan: I... I love you Th...Thornclaw... dies

Blossomfall: TURN THAT DISGUSTING MUSIC OFF! ED SHEERAN IS SO OVERRATED. PLAY SOME SHAWN MENDES INSTEAD, pEaSaNt!

Ed Sheeran's Happier is soon replaced by Shawn Mendes' Hold On Blossomfall: Great! Bumblestar should poof out soon.

Blossomfall: It didn't work ;-;

Thornclaw: I think that was because you forgot his body.

Blossomfall: ARE YOU CHALLENGING MY AUTHORITY? DO YOU NOT TRUST ME AND MY GREATNESS? YOU AREN'T THE ONE TRYING TO RESURRECT A DEAD CAT, YOU'RE JUS- oh. That makes sense.

Thornclaw: flinches C-can I go now?

Blossomfall: sighs Oh, I suppose so. BUT I do expect-

Thornclaw: yeets away to freedom

Thornclaw: Why am I still doing this?

Blossomfall: Because I pay you.

Thornclaw: When have you ever-

Blossomfall: Hush, let the readers think I'm still amazing.

Random Fan: We never thought that in the first plac-

Blossomfall: HUSH PEASANT.

Random Fan: U-u-uh, okay? backs away slowly

Blossomfall: So!

Thornclaw: So what?

Blossomfall: hUSH

 crickets in the background

Blossomfall: I have a foolproof idea to resurrect Bumblestar!

Thornclaw: looks at other nineteen episodes Why does that sound familiar?

Blossomfall: ANYWAYS glares at Thornclaw, I realized that Bumblestar is too puny to do anything!

Thornclaw: Wow, really? Couldn't tell that by the fact that Brambleclaw had to do everything-

Blossomfall: So, we're going to give him an upgrade?

Thornclaw:...How?

Blossomfall: Obviously, replacing his useless body parts with better ones! Bumblestar 2.0!

Thornclaw: I-is that a good thing?

Blossomfall: glares at Thornclaw

Thornclaw: Okay, yeesh.

Blossomfall opens a coffin to reveal a mangled, tangled Bumblestar with funky smells.

Blossomfall: Sorrelstripe! Hollytuft!

Both cats race over, eager to help.

Thornclaw: B-but didn't they die in Episode 5?

Blossomfall: Who needs plot consistency? Not us!

Thornclaw: Right, my bad. edges away from the cats

Blossomfall: Peasants, get me a bunch of - Blossomfall begins to list a bunch of materials.

The two cats race off. As soon as they arrive back, Blossomfall kills them for the 462835th time and takes the material.

Blossomfall: Alrighty, let's get started!

Blossomfall takes off Bumblestar's right leg, left paw and both ears. She takes the twigs from Twigbranch and binds them into limb-like shapes with leaves. She repeats the process until she has made all of the missing limbs.

Blossomfall: Now, I present to you, Bumblestar 2.0!

Thornclaw: …

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: I'm literally aging.

Blossomfall: hUSH PEASANT!

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: Still waiting...

Thornclaw: ...

Thornclaw: …

Thornclaw: Nothing's happening…

Blossomfall: ARGH!

Blossomfall kills Hollytuft and Sorrelstripe again out of frustration.

Thornclaw: B-but, the plot consistency…

Episode 20

Camera Cat: We're live in 3...

Blossomfall: Wait!

Camera Cat: 2...

Blossomfall: I'm not ready!

Camera Cat: 1...

Blossomfall: I lost the coffin! Has anyone seen the coffin?

Camera Cat: ACTION!

Blossomfall freezes from her frantic scramble and regains her composure in a microsecond.

Blossomfall: Howdy there, folks, and welcome back to 12 Ways to Kill Your Smart Sister!

Camera Cat: from offstage No! That's not right!

Blossomfall: Welcome everyone to another episode of 21 Kills to Ways Stupid, Your Brother Stupid.

Camera Cat: Wrong again!

Blossomfall: Here's another episode of 101 Ways to Kill a Cat!

Camera Cat: That was the prequel!

Blossomfall: We're back to 21 Stupid Ways to Stupidly Resurrect Your Stupid Brother.

Camera Cat: Still not correct, but honestly a way more accurate title for this show.

Blossomfall: Ugh, whatEVER. It's your fault for starting when I wasn't ready.

Camera Cat: Yeah, blame me. Go ahead.

Blossomfall: Okay. IT'S ALL YOUR FAULT!!!!

Thornclaw strolls into the room.

Thornclaw: Hey, Blossomfall? I found Bumblestar's coffin outside a McDonald's.

Blossomfall: Oh yeahhhhhh. That's where I put it.

Camera Cat: What.

Blossomfall: I got the unrelenting urge for a McFlurry on my way here.

Camera Cat: So you just left a dead body by the front door???

Blossomfall: shakes head No, silly. I parked it in a parking spot.

Thornclaw: And then forgot about it.

Blossomfall: Exactly!

Camera Cat: facepaw I need a raise...

Blossomfall: Anywho, now that we've located our subject, it's time to begin!

Thornclaw: What dumb plan did you come up with this time?

Blossomfall: We're gonna summon his spirit and return it to his body!

Thornclaw: Didn't we already try that?

Blossomfall: Yes, but that was through the moonpool. I have a different method this time.

Thornclaw: Oh boy.

Blossomfall: Evocation!

Thornclaw: Evo-what?

Blossomfall: Evocation.

Thornclaw: What's that?

Blossomfall: It summons spirits, idiot. Pay attention!

Thornclaw: You're ridiculous. That's not gonna work.

Blossomfall: 'Scuse you, but my plan is foolproof.

Thornclaw: A foolproof plan planned by a fool is no longer foolproof.

Blossomfall: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Blossomfall: ...

Blossomfall: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Blossomfall: ...

Thornclaw: ...

Blossomfall: MOVING ON!

Thornclaw: How are you even gonna return his spirit to his body once he's summoned?

Blossomfall grins maniacally and whips out a giant metal cage from behind her back.

Camera Cat: She was holding that the whole time?

Blossomfall: Behold... the Spirit Trap and Transfer 10000!

Thornclaw: examines Looks like a normal cage to me.

Blossomfall: But it's not!

Thornclaw: Yeah, sure...

Blossomfall: O ye of little faith, watch and learn.

Thornclaw: sighs Can I leave now?

Blossomfall: bares teeth NO!

Thornclaw: Geez, okay.

Blossomfall: points towards a nearby shelf with some convenient candles Go fetch me the candles.

Thornclaw grabs them, grumbling, and returns them to Blossomfall.

Blossomfall: Now light 'em up!

Thornclaw: Uh... how? I'm a cat without opposable thumbs or the intelligence required to understand the concept of fire.

Blossomfall: UGHHH! You're impossible. claps paws together twice AUUUUTHOOOOR!!! WHOEVER'S WRITING THIIISSSSS!!!!!

Featherfrost: materializes from thin air YOU BETTER HAVE A GOOD EXCUSE FOR INTERRUPTING MY NETFLIX BINGE.

Blossomfall: We need these candles lit.

Featherfrost: Seriously? I had to stop Criminal Minds for this??

Blossomfall: crosses arms, because cats can do that Just do it and be done with it already!

Featherfrost: Hmph. The serial arsonist I was was watching could've done that.

Blossomfall: Then summon him to light the candles!

Featherfrost: He's fictional, dummy.

Blossomfall: So am I.

Fourth Wall: Ouch.

Thornclaw: This whole fictional premise is so useless.

Fourth Wall: Owwwww...

Camera Cat: If none of this is real, can you write me some more catmint to smoke?

Fourth Wall: silent tear slides down its... surface :')

Featherfrost: Ugh, whatever. You're all annoying. lifts up her magical author wand

Poof!

Featherfrost: There's your catmint.

Camera Cat: rolls his blunt Sweeeeeet.

Featherfrost: suddenly remembers something turns to audience Uh... drugs are bad, kids! Camera Cat here will get really high one day and walk off a cliff. Stay sober!

Blossomfall: impatiently My fire????

Featherfrost: waves wand again

Poof!

All the candles in the area light up.

Blossomfall: See? Was that so hard?

Featherfrost: Shut up or I'll write you off a cliff too. vanishes back to the land of Netflix

Blossomfall: oKAY then... let's get started.

Thornclaw: This isn't going to work.

Blossomfall: Be silent and behold!

She moves the candles in a circle surrounding the coffin.

Blossomfall: Blah, blah blah blablabla BLAH!

Thornclaw: Um...

Blossomfall: Shut up. It's the beautiful ancient language of Latin.

Blosomfall: Blah blah blah, blah! Blahhh... BLABLA!!!!!

The air ripples next to the coffin, and the spirit of Bumblestar appears.

Blossomfall: I knew it!

Thornclaw: I can't believe that worked...

Bumblestar's Ghost: What do you want?

Blossomfall: To resurrect you!

Bumblestar's Ghost: No can do. I'm a bit occupied at the moment.

Blossomfall: With what?

Bumblestar's Ghost: Plotting how to return to the land of the living.

Blossomfall: But that's what I'm trying to do too...

Bumblestar's Ghost: Look, I love the sentiment, but I don't have time for this. I need to figure out how to come back to life!

Thornclaw: Are you dumb.

Blossomfall: I can help you with that. Just get in the cage and I'll return your spirit to your body!

Bumblestar's Ghost: Cage? That'll be a handy torture device to use back in the Dark Forest while I figure out my plan to be resurrected.

Bumblestar grabs the cage and disappears back to the Dark Forest.

Thornclaw: SKSJOASIDUAISKSA we've been trying to resurrect him for twenty episodes, and he's so stupid that he LEFT when we had his ghost RIGHT HERE.

Blossomfall: shrugs Whatever. He'll smarten up eventually.

Thornclaw: Yeah, sure. Whatever you say...

brought to you by feather. i can't believe we're on episode twenty! it's gonna be sad to see this little series finally come to a close... :(
